AGED BRIDE NEED NOT STARVE .-Mrs. Cornelius B Marce, 78 years old and worth $3,000,000, was married in Richmond, Va., last February, to Willard H. Hutchinson, an actor, 24 years of age, and she has made over all her possessions to him. He has now deed-ed back to her so long as she may live one half of the property, or, rather, they have agreed to put the entire estate in trust, each to draw one-half of the restals on the real estate which Mrs. Hutchicson owns in New York, Montreal, Boston and elsewhere. The papers have been signed, and is in the hards of Lawyer Paul Sheldon, who has been made trustee. He is to collect the rent, and each month send to the husband his half and to the wife her equal part. Mr. Hutchinson said Saturday: "We have not quarreled. The arrangement we have just made is ike this: Suppose you and I had a huge watermelou. Suppose it was too heavy for me to carry, and you insisted upon giving it to me. Then suppose I did not care to deprive you entirely of it, nod went to a third party and said: Keep this melon for us, and give us such a side now and then.' There you

SECLUSION OF TURKISH WOMEN .-The seclusion of Turkish women when t home within the precincts of the arem, and the concealment of their ersors when abroad with veil and loak, are by no meens, as it is generaly imagined, a consequence of their degraded" position, but a precaution or their greater safety, declares the o-m politan. The seclusion of women an Oriental custom far older than Ism which has in all ages been praciced under certain social conditions, nd chief among these conditions has been the neighborhood of people of an alien race. Nor is it invariably or exlusively under Islam, that such seclus ion is practiced at the present day. For in the remoter parts of the Ottoman Empire the Christian women, Greek and Armenian, live in the greatest se-clusion, and go abroad only when cloakof the Albanian and Kurdish highlands njoy an exceptional degree of personal ndependence. Among the Kurdish nountsineers, and especially the nomad ribes, that "equality of the sexes" so earned after by the new woman would ndeed almost seem to be an accomplish-

KEPT SILENT FOR 28 YEARS.-Not a vord to anyone except his mother has Vinnie Wakefield, of Millbridge, Me., poken in 28 years. His silence began when he was 10 years old. He can alk as well as any man in the town, nd goes about a great deal, but when ny person other than his mother asks im a question he writes the answer on slip of paper and hands it over silenty. Wakefield was peculiarly silentias a hild, and when his father died be quit peaking altogether, except for an ocasional word to his mother. He went o school, his mother being the teacher, and managed to get a fair education, although scarely opening his mouth all the time. Before his father died he slayed with the other children, but seldom said a word to any of them. When a young man he went to dances and waltzed with the girls, but he was never known to say one word on these occa sions, even to his partner.

An Epidemic of Diarrhoea. Mr. A Sanders, writing from Cocosint Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a sovere attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, bolera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP? A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something hat will relieve and cure the more se vere and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, chee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years ago by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard figures.

After many intricate experiments scientists have discovered methods for obtaining all the natural digestants. These have been combined in the proportion found in the human body and united with substances that build up the disestive organs, making a compound called Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and allows all dyspepties to eat plenty of nourishing food while the stemach troubles are being radically cured by the medicinal agents it contains. It is pleasant to take and will give quick relief.
